

Illustrious Elegance Meets Contemporary Excellence

4 2 2

Regularly referred to as Kew's oldest residence, 'TURINVILLE' is certainly one of the suburb's most refined properties - and clearly boasts one of the area's most substantial allotments. Romantic Victorian exterior aesthetics, majestic verandahs and beautifully renovated period proportions provide a classical reference for fabulous contemporary spaces that make their own distinctive statement. Four bedrooms and two bathrooms are arranged around an unforgettable sitting room and scintillating state-of-the-art living/entertaining areas featuring home cinema fit-out and an un-mistakable air of quality Designer flair defines an open-plan kitchen in a home where only one standard - the best - has been applied. Dual carport, substantial cellar space and wonderful garden dimensions further enhance
