

Corner Location

2 1 2

Here is a great chance to get into the property market as a first home owner or investor considering various options and future development potential (STCA). Want more space? Renovate to your heart's content! This humble, yet cozy home sits on approx. 866sqm of land on a corner block. Master with semi-en suite, ducted heating and air-conditioning, built-in robes, wall to wall carpet except for wet areas, lots of storage space, good size laundry with a spacious backyard and remote control garage large enough for creative workshop activities. Superb location near schools and shops. Easy access to buses and railway station.
