

Space Your Family Can Grow Into

4 2 2

If space is an issue your family desperately needs to resolve, this exceptional single-level family home of grand proportions is destined to be the peacemaker. A striking interior epitomises modern living with its fabulous mix of formal and casual living areas, while a stunning elevated outdoor setting capitalises on its serene nature and integration with the central living area by offering a sensational setting for summer night BBQs. French doors hide an elegantly themed formal dining setting, which links with a light-filled central living area that's home to a sizeable kitchen equipped with generous bench space and abundant storage options and ducted heating and cooling throughout. Soaring Cathedral ceiling accentuates the height and space of the semi-secluded rumpus featuring wet bar; four well-proportioned bedrooms plus study, meanwhile, ensures there's a place - and work space! - for
