

A Stylishly Neat One-Bedroom Retreat

1 1

Why rent and rave when you can buy and save with this sun-drenched one-bedroom apartment? The stylishly presented living and dining room is ultra-spacious with big picture windows filtering in fabulous natural northern light and city glimpses. A north-facing balcony expands the comfort outdoors. Cooking will always be a pleasure in the modern efficiently designed kitchen equipped with stainless-steel appliances and kicker drawers - great for storing platters. Built-in robes take up an entire wall of the bedroom that links to a sparkling renovated bathroom with bath and stone vanity. Set in a neat well-maintained complex, this brilliant beginner or portfolio addition is equipped with a reverse-cycle air conditioner and a Rinnai temperature-controlled continuous hot water unit. With trams at the door giving easy access to the CBD and St Kilda Esplanade, the apartment enjoys a Scotch Hill location
