

Spacious, Sunny Gem Close To All Conveniences

1 1 1

Boasting a sunny aspect at the front of the building, this one bedroom, second floor apartment is larger than most and close to all the amenities of South Melbourne. With two balconies giving fresh air, glimpses of Albert Park, and a chance for some outdoor living, this apartment has all the convenience of city living. Freshly recarpeted, in addition to a modern kitchen it has the added bonus of a separate kitchen bench offering both additional storage and seating for meals. The bedroom is large and has mirrored built in robes and opens to a spacious balcony. The sun drenched living room connects to a second balcony with room for a bbq and outdoor seating. The bathroom has an extra-large shower and a European style laundry. With secure parking in a small boutique block, and close to public transport, this apartment would be the perfect location for an investment or to escape the high rise
