

Privacy and a Perfect Location

3 2

There are three excellent reasons to buy this charming townhouse - minimal upkeep, great investment potential and affords a sensational lifestyle location. Hidden behind a brush fence and security gates, the home has a feeling of privacy and tranquillity. The polished boards in the living areas give a warm, homely feeling and the modern kitchen with stainless steel appliances and glass splashback has plenty of storage. Through the kitchen, the compact laundry leads to a small, low maintenance courtyard garden. The study has been fitted out with built in shelves and cupboards, making a pleasant working area. The downstairs master bedroom has plenty of robes and the newly renovated bathroom boasts a frameless glass shower and beautifully crafted cupboards.
