Character and Charm with Modern Convenience

This charming, Edwardian brick home, in a prestige location, is full of features of the period including pine floors, fireplaces and high ceilings. The sun streams into the master bedroom with its original fireplace and robes and the two further bedrooms are spacious and bright. The central living room has a combustion heater and built in wall units, while the rear of the house has been fully modernised with a sparkling kitchen with copious drawers and cupboard storage and quality Miele appliances. The kitchen overlooks a dining/family room with double doors opening to a deck and a paved rear yard with access to the side street. The family bathroom is enormous with full bath, large shower and double vanities.
