Nestled behind a high front hedge of mature plants lies a well-loved home which has been maintained by the same family for over 70 years. It has seen generations of children pass through and is now looking for a new owner.

Set on a vast 950sqm (approx) block, the home in complemented by a bright living room with feature fireplace and a separate dining room with a bay window. The kitchen is quite functional with wall oven, hot plate and Bosch dishwasher and overlooks a sunny family room and balcony, with views over the large back garden. There is a family bathroom with separate shower and toilet and three
