

Spacious classic apartment in stunning park location

2 1

Elevated high above the street with stunning north facing views directly across historic St James Park, and enjoying a private entrance at the front of the tightly held Art Deco 'Whitehall' building of only 6 apartments, this classical boutique apartment presents elegant period features amidst a quality renovation. Grandly proportioned and flooded with natural light, the residence is superbly located for those wishing to downsize in comfort, or for young families seeking a quality first home.

Soaring 3m high ceilings and charming glass details highlight a spacious front living room with an open fireplace and towering bay windows framing tranquil leafy parkland views, secluded behind an established landscaped front garden. At the heart of the residence, a contemporary timber kitchen comprises
