

Charm, class and a sought-after location

5 3 1

In an elevated position on the high side of the street is a stunning period-inspired weatherboard house. Filled with decorative original features and high-quality contemporary inclusions, it enjoys established gardens and a canopy of trees.

An impressive, yet exceptionally liveable and considered layout has the ground floor dedicated to living and entertaining in style. The elegant formal lounge and dining room has an open fireplace, as does the adjacent living room. Polished floors grace an open study and the rear family/meals area, where a wall of windows embraces views of the lush backyard and fishponds, and French doors flow out to a private BBQ area. The gourmet kitchen boasts timber benches, classic tiled splashbacks, a Samsung stainless steel dishwasher and Miele gas cooktop and pyrolytic oven.
