

1920s period brilliance and tree-lined surrounds

5 2 2

Set on one of Blackburn's most picturesque tree-lined streets, and the perfect marriage of early 1900s period charm and contemporary style, this irresistible 5 bedroom, 2 bathroom residence is sure to allure families with its enchanting modern charm and superb alfresco space!

Creating a striking image from the street with a façade that has been wonderfully preserved, this incredible single level home is overwhelmed by highlights on the inside. A leadlight entry makes way for a front master bedroom which offers terrific peace and seclusion, as well as soft quality carpet, walk-in robe storage, and a quality modern ensuite with double vanity. There is another bedroom towards the front of the dwelling which has a unique decorative wood oven which is a relic of the home's original build.
