

Spectacular city views and superb family space

4 3 3

Celebrating spacious and heartwarming family living, with a thoughtful design over two levels which includes three amazing living zones, and displaying breathtaking views of the CBD to the west, this sensational 4 bedroom, 3 bathroom residence further combines original charm with contemporary updates.

This pocket of Surrey Hills is one of the most sought-after in the area, so securing this amazing family offering should be number one on your list. The perfect balance of period and modern of this home is outstanding, with classic timber floors and traditional windows complemented by a variety of contemporary features throughout. An open and welcoming entry makes way for two amazing highlights at the front of the layout, which includes the spacious master bedroom with WIR and dual vanity marble ensuite, and the large formal lounge room with open fireplace.
