

Life in Richmond

3 2 1

When you enter this contemporary, architect designed town residence, you cannot help but be impressed by the quality and innovative design features. From the decorative panels at the entrance, to the solid black butt staircase, electric blinds, concealed lighting and superb finishes, no expense has been spared to provide the ultimate in luxury accommodation.

The living/dining room has high ceilings, floor to ceiling windows with a roof return and is absolutely flooded with natural light. A western facing balcony provides a completely private place for an evening drink while a complementary screened balcony faces east adjoining the kitchen. A stylish Corian island bench/breakfast bar is a feature of the kitchen, which has an integrated fridge/freezer and also a wine fridge. There is an induction cooktop, quality Miele appliances and copious soft close storage.
