

A Landmark Architectural Residence with Sweeping City Views

4 3 2

Designed by Neil Architecture and completed less than two years ago, this extraordinary Kew residence within Studley Park Precinct is a statement in refined, design-led living - where no expense has been spared and every detail has been carefully considered to capture light, landscape and skyline.

Commanding breathtaking city views from almost every room, the home unfolds across multiple levels, delivering a rare combination of luxury, functionality and architectural presence - perfectly suited to modern family living.
